1 Words of Welcome

©Thanos Fotakopoulos

Dear President, Dear athletes, coaches, referees, and dear friends!

Paris Open 2023 will be the first Grand Prix event where athletes can collect ranking points for The World Games 2025 in Chengdu, China.

With this, we are entering a new qualification phase where Paris Open is a traditional high-level event – by numbers and quality.

We want to thank FFJDA for making the National Institute of Judo again the centre of the jujitsu world this weekend.

The organising team will provide a professional service to athletes, coaches, referees, and other stakeholders.

Please accept our thanks for this investment in our future.

I am happy to know this event will celebrate friendship and high-level sports, and I wish all delegations good preparation and healthy arrival.

Panagiotis THEODOROPOULOS
President JJIF

Dear Sports Friends!

We have the pleasure to invite you again to one of the biggest ju-jitsu event in Europe. An important one. In history the FFJDA always invested a lot of energy in quality and excellence of organisation. I wish to express our thanks and gratitude to many dedicated volunteers, officials, and the whole Team, responsible for organisation.

Every event is a possibility for development, to promote ju-jitsu top sport, sportsmanlike behaviour, fair play and give the athletes (and other members of the teams) a chance for good performance and feeling of kind welcome, acceptance, and respect. We would like additionally emphasise and congratulate for the time and energy the organiser is investing in referee education and training for many years. It helps our referees, athletes, coaches and sport itself a lot.

We wish you all a pleasant stay in France during the event as well before/after the event, if possible, as this is a beautiful country which offers a lot. It is worthwhile to taste it a bit more than mats and sports halls. It also brings some nice and warm memories of absent sports friends who dedicated their lives to martial arts, ju-jitsu in particular, and we will not be able to see them but they remain in our thoughts as a memory with a smile.

Thank you FFJDA for the investment in the event and opportunity to meet in a high-level ranking competition.

Dear Friends, we look forward to seeing you again in France.

Robert PERC

President JJEU

Vice President JJIF

Dear Jujitsukas, dear friends,

We are pleased to welcome you once again to Paris for this exceptional event that is the Jujitsu Grand Prix.

This competition will be held at the new Arena of the Dojo in Paris on April 22nd and 23rd.

This edition opens the year 2023 with an international competition in Paris. As you know, each competition is a preparation for Paris 2024. We want all teams there.

The Jujitsu Grand Prix is an essential deadline for the best jujitsukas in the world who come to defend their chance; As such, I thank all the athletes, all the executives and all the delegations that are present for this unmissable event of the sports calendar.

I thank the International Jujitsu Federation, and its President Panagiotis THEODOROPOULOS, for the trust shown to the France in this organization, and for the quality of all the major competitions it organizes around the world.

I also thank all the elected representatives of the Federation, the employees, the volunteers, the judges, and the referees for their unwavering commitment to make jujitsu shine.

Finally, I wish all the participants of this edition a superb Jujitsu Grand Prix.

Stéphane NOMIS

President France Judo, Jujitsu Federation
