Dear athletes and sports officials,
Dear karate friends,

After the well-deserved summer rest for all of you, it is my utmost pleasure to invite and welcome you, in the name of the Organizing Committee and the Croatian Karate Union, to this year's 26th Međimurje Open in Čakovec, Croatia.

I am always happy to start our new competition season in the city of Čakovec because I know that the Organizing Committee will prepare a sporting competition on the best possible level, which will surely attract many of our local but also international participants.

Karate is a noble sport; it requires self-discipline, focuses on awareness, a high level of hygienic navigation, obedience, modesty, mutual respect, and positive thinking. Understandably, the same principles become part of every practitioner's daily life. I wish and hope that you will live and feel the spirit of all these virtues in Čakovec.

Until we meet soon, I warmly greet you and hope we will share some delightful moments at the 26th Međimurje Open!

Respectfully,
Davor Cipek,
President of the Croatian Karate Union
