1. WELCOME MESSAGE

1.1 Greeting from the Head of the host NF

Konya (also known as the Mevlana's City) with its rich history is one of the most valuable cities to be seen in Turkey. Mevlana Celaddiin-i Rumi is a 13th century Muslim saint and Anatolian mystic known throughout the world for his exquisite poems and words of wisdom, which have been translated into many languages. Rumi, as he is known in the west, is the best-selling poet in USA. The United Nations declared 2007 The Year of Rumi and celebrations were held worldwide.

When you are in Konya, we will do everything in order to make sure that you are presented with an excellent stay and that all requirements are met so that, when returning home, you feel like you participated in an event of excellence that provided you unforgettable moments.

The whole world has still been experiencing arduous times because of Covid-19. So I would especially like to thank you for your participation during these difficult times.

Before I finish my words, I want to greet you with the words of Mevlana.

"Come, come, whoever you are.

Wanderer, worshipper, lover of leaving — it doesn't matter, ours is not a caravan of despair.

Come, even if you have broken your vow a hundred times, Come, come again, come"

We are looking forward to meeting you in Konya Yours
faithfully,

Dr. Aslan Abid

UGUZ President

Turkish Karate Federation

20. CITY / COUNTRY INFORMATION

Konya is a city in Central Anatolia in Turkey which has protected its name for centuries. Archaeology shows that the Konya area is one of the most ancient settlements of Anatolia. The results of excavations in Catalhöyük, Karahöyük, Cukurkent and Kucukoy show the region was inhabited as far back as the Neolithic Period (Late Stone Age) of 7000 BC. Other settlers of the city before Islam were; the Calcolitic Period (Copper Age) civilizations, Bronze Age civilizations, the Hittites, the Frigians, the Lydians, the Persians, the Romans and then Byzantines. Konya is also an important place for early Christians because St. Paul and St. Barnabas came to the city on one of their journeys in Asia Minor around 50 AD.

Konya was the capital of Seljuk Empire between 1071 and 1308. In 1220 Alaeddin Keykubad I repaired the city wall and decorated them with towers. But the city has been the site of a power - struggle between the Seljuks, Karamanoglu's, Mongols, and Ilhan's and it changed hands a few times. In the time of Fatih Sultan Mehmet, in 1466, Konya joined the lands of the Ottoman Empire.

The most important place to visit in Konya is Mevlana's Mausoleum, the mystic poet on the way of sufism and the founder of the Whirling Dervish Order. Apart from that there is Karatay Medrese, which was a theological school used as tiles museum today, Alaaddin Keykubat Mosque from 12th century and Ince Minare (Thin Minaret) Mosque.

Another interesting attraction in Konya is the Tropical Butterflies Park which was opened in July 2015. Being the first of its kind in Turkey, the Park provides shelter to 6,000 butterflies of 15 different species, as well as 20,000 tropical plants.
