Places to Visit in Jordan

- Petra

Visiting Petra is one of a handful of true 'once in a lifetime' experiences. Petra, the 'rose red city', the city 'half as old as time', one of the 'Seven Wonders of the World', was carved out of the rocky southern Jordanian desert by the Nabateans over 2000 years ago. What was then the capital of the Nabatean Kingdom, was lost for 2000 years until it was rediscovered 200 years ago by a Swedish explorer.

- King Hussein Mosque

Visit the Grand al-Husseini Mosque in Amman to delve a little deeper into the history of Jordan. This Islamic monument is also simply known as the King Hussein Mosque, as it was built in 1924 by the emir Abdullah bin al-Hussein.

- Souk Jara

Come to Souk Jara to discover the authentically local face of Amman. Designed as a modern interpretation of the traditional souk, the market is home to many stalls selling antiques, arts and crafts. Set on Fawzi Malouf Street near the end of Rainbow Street, the market is a perfect place for visitors to buy souvenirs and try local cuisine.

- Amman Roman Theatre:

The Roman Theater is one of the most impressive attractions in Amman. The, steeply raked amphitheater features incredible acoustics, an ingenious design and a seating capacity for approximately 6,000 people. It's easy to be awed by the sheer immensity of the space and the thought of crowds gathering here nearly 2,000 years ago.

- Amman`s Gold Souk

Nestled in the heart of downtown Amman is a series of narrow lanes that make up Amman's Gold Souk. Also known as Souq El Sagha, this historical souk is the beloved domain of the city's gold craftsmen, merchants and all those who love bling.

- Dead Sea

The Dead Sea is the lowest point of dry land on earth at 431m (1,414ft) below sea level, making for a fascinating natural wonder that no visitor to Jordan should miss. Known for its exceptionally salty but soothing waters, the mineral-rich mud has attracted visitors including the famous Egyptian queen, Cleopatra. Tourists can still float on their back on the therapeutic waters and luxuriate in the black mud – just avoid getting it in your eyes. Enjoy a private boat cruise on the Dead Sea as part of Culture Trip's specially curated Jordan trip, led by our local insider.
