1. Welcome

Dear friends, members of Jiu-Jitsu's family.

Hereby I would like to invite you to the great and at the same time important sporting event of the sport we all love and support, which will be held in our country in December 2022.

Ju Jitsu Open Acropolis 2022

From December 8, 2022, until December 10, 2022, at the Olympic Sports Centre of the 2004 Olympic Games, "Spyros Louis", Athletes Men and Women from all over the world will compete in all disciplines, Duo, Fighting System & Jiu-Jitsu

At Ju Jitsu Open Acropolis 2022, all ages categories will have the opportunity to participate and compete at a high level tournament.

Ages, under 12 years old, under 10 years old or even under 8 years old, boys and girls, in combination with the other older ages, Cadet, Juniors, Men & Women, as well as Adults, are going to create a dynamic sports event at the end of 2022.

We have already ensured that the competitions are held in 100% compliance with the International Jiu-Jitsu Federation's rule book.

We are waiting for you in one of the most beautiful capitals of Europe, Athens, to compete and achieve great victories through beautiful and exciting fights.

Sincerely,

Maria Charitopoulou

President of HJJF,

BM of JJIF,

President of the Women's Committee at JJIF

2. The Location

Athens Olympic Stadium “Spyros Luis”

Main Stadium > Kasimatis Hall

Full name: Olympic Athletic Center of Athens O.A.K.A (Spyros Louis)

Former names: Spyros Louis Stadium

Location: Maroussi, Athens, Greece

Public transit : Athens Metro Line 1 - Eirini

Located in the area of Marousi in Athens, the stadium was originally designed in 1980 and built in 1980–1982. It was completed in time to host the 1982 European Championships in Athletics. It was inaugurated by the President of Greece at the time, Konstantinos Karamanlis, on 8 September 1982. One year later, in 1983, OAKA Stadium hosted the 1983 European Cup Final between Hamburger SV and Juventus (1-0). In 1987, the stadium hosted the 1986–87 European Cup Winners' Cup final between Ajax and Lokomotiv Leipzig (1-0). Olympic stadium is an UEFA category four stadium and is the largest stadium in Greece. In 1994, OAKA Stadium hosted their second 1994 UEFA Champions League Final, this time contested between AC Milan and Barcelona (4-0). It also hosted several events of the 1991 Mediterranean Games and the 1997 World Championships in Athletics, sought in order to prove that it was capable of hosting major sporting events after the failure of Athens to win the 1996 Summer Olympics but successfully hosting the 2004 Summer Olympics.

It was extensively renovated in time for the 2004 Summer Olympics and the 2004 Summer Paralympics, including a roof designed by Santiago Calatrava, and innovatively positioned with Enerpac hydraulics.^[3] The roof was added atop the sidelines and completed just in time for the opening of the Games. The stadium was then officially re-opened on 30 July 2004. It hosted the athletics events and the football finals at the Olympics and the athletics at the Paralympics.^[4] It also hosted the opening ceremony on 13 August 2004, and the closing ceremony on 29 August 2004 along the paralympics ceremonies on 17 and 28 September. In 2007, OAKA Stadium hosted the 2007 UEFA Champions League Final between AC Milan and Liverpool (2-1). The stadium's attendance was reduced to 72,000 for the Olympics, the initial capacity was some 75,000, though only 69,618 seats were made publicly available for the track and field events and slightly more for the football final. The turf system consists of natural grass in modular containers which incorporate irrigation and drainage systems.
