1. Welcome Message by The Minister of Sports Development of The Republic of Uzbekistan

First of all, I am pleased to welcome all of you at the Asian Karate WKF Championships in Tashkent.

Today, under the leadership of our Honorable President Shavkat Mirziyoyev, special attention is being paid to sports, strengthening the health of the population and popularizing a healthy lifestyle, especially among young people. And this is not in vain, because the bright future of New Uzbekistan can be built only by the generation that is healthy and perfect in all respects.

At the same time, raising the position of Uzbekistan in world sports by organizing prestigious sports competitions in our country is one of our priority tasks. As an example - our capital Tashkent was the host of the Asian Senior Karate Championships which was held on July 19-22 of 2019 and organized at the highest level. It should be noted, that the International sports experts were also happy to admit it.

I hope that the Asian Karate Championships starting in Tashkent will be also organized on a top level as a logical continuation of the above efforts and will leave a warm impression on foreign guests.

The strongest karate masters of our continent are participating in this Asian Championship, and there is no doubt that their unique performances will leave a positive impression on the fans, and the interest of our young people to karate will increase even more.

Once again, welcome to our lovely Uzbekistan!

Adkham Ikramov

Minister of Sports Development of the Republic of Uzbekistan

2. Foreword by The AKF President

The Covid Pandemic has been devastating the world for a long 4-year times now, it is now slowly coming to the end. The Asian Karate Federation (AKF), however, has already started its journey of recovery since 2021. The AKF, with the strong support from its member National Federations, have successfully completed the Asian Karate Championships for the Cadet, Junior, Under-21 and the Senior age groups.

This year the AKF and its Executive Council have decided to continue to organise a combined Championship for all age categories. In addition, the AKF has also decided to have an additional category, namely the 1st Asian Para Karate Championship, to complete the Asian Karate Championship.

On behalf of the AKF, I would like to thanks the Uzbekistan Government, and the Uzbekistan Karata Federation for allocating much resources to host the massive combined Championship. The AKF would also like to thank WKF and its President Mr. Antonio Espinos for his relentless support to the AKF, and without the support from WKF the Para Karate Championship will not be possible.

Last but not least, I would like to also thank all our member National Federations for the support. I look forward to meet up with all of you and to celebrate the mega Asian Karate Championship together in the beautiful city of Tashkent.

Major General Nasser Al Razooqi

3. Foreword by The WKF President

The development of our Continental events is at the core of the progress of the WKF. The major competitions in each continent represent the stepping stone that help us take our sport to new heights, and on that note, the Asian Karate Championships has been a stronghold of the growth of Karate as a discipline with events continuously growing in quality and interest. I am sure that the 2022 AKF Championships will be no exception.

All of us Karate fans will be looking forward to one of the highlights of the year, when the best Karate athletes in Asia will meet at the continental championships to be held in Tashkent from December 16 to 20. This year, the event gathers Senior, Cadet, Junior, U21, and Para-Karate categories thus making the tournament a massive celebration of our sport.

Moreover, in addition to the tremendous sporting interest of the event, we are pleased to note that Para-Karate continues to gain relevance with the first edition of the AKF Para-Karate Championships being celebrated this year in Tashkent.

I want to thank the AKF and its president Major General Nasser Alrazooqi for their efforts to host a truly memorable event. I am convinced that the participants will find the best conditions to show their outstanding abilities.
